b. Instructor reserves the right to make changes to any aspect of the Retreat, or to cancel the Retreat entirely, at any time due to conditions in the Destination Country, neighboring countries, or the world, including but not limited to acts of nature such as weather or other natural disaster, pandemic, and other “acts of god,” acts of war or terrorism, terrorist threat, civil unrest, riots, strikes, trade disputes, interruption of transportation, government or political actions or orders, change of law or regulation, suspension of civil rights, crime, a material change to the relevant U.S. State Department Travel Warning or Advisory (which can be found at <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/international-travel/International-Travel-Country-Information-Pages.html> ), acts or omissions of a third party, or for any other reason whatsoever outside the reasonable control of Instructor. insurance premiums, gear purchases, and vaccination and other medical-related costs. Participating in international travel and an international retreat is risky for everyone involved, not just Participant. That is why Instructor requires travel and trip cancellation insurance (see immediately below); such insurance helps everyone share the potential cost of the risks of an international retreat.

12. REQUIRED INSURANCE

Instructor requires that each Participant purchase individual travel and trip cancellation insurance in advance of the Retreat. In particular, due to the inherently risky nature of international travel especially during and for while after the COVID-19 global public health emergency, Instructor requires a “Cancel For Any Reason” provision in the policy. It is Participant’s responsibility to ensure that they are adequately insured for the duration of the Retreat regarding accident, injury, illness, death, emergency evacuation and repatriation, loss of personal items, cancellation, curtailment, worldwide emergency assistance, and all other contingencies. No insurance is provided for Participant by Instructor or by the retreat center. Participant must email their certificate of coverage for said insurance to Instructor at John@JohnVosler.com at the same time as they pay their Reservation Deposit; Participant’s spot in the Retreat shall not be saved until Instructor receives this certificate of coverage.

13. TRAVEL DOCUMENTS, MEDICAL EXAMS, QUARANTINES, AND VACCINATIONS

It is Participant’s responsibility to learn about and obtain all required travel documents, medical examinations, and vaccinations for travel to the Destination Country. Participant shall also be solely responsible for learning about and complying with any COVID-19 testing, vaccine, quarantine, or similar entry requirements of the Destination Country and the country to which Participant will be returning. Instructor is not responsible for any delays, cancellations, or damages due to Participant’s lack of proper travel documents, medical examinations, quarantine compliance, or vaccinations, including but not limited to a valid passport, visas (entry and exit), health certificates, and other documents that may be required by the Destination Country or the country to which Participant will be returning. Instructor has not and will not provide advice regarding the immigration law of the Destination Country or the country to which Participant will be returning.

14. ASSUMPTIONS OF RISK AND RESPONSIBILITY

a. Participant acknowledges that international travel can be challenging and bears a higher level of risk and uncertainty compared to domestic travel, especially during the COVID-19 global public health emergency. The risk and uncertainty cannot be eliminated by Instructor and is part of the experience, enjoyment, and reward of an international retreat. In the Destination Country, standards of accommodation, communication, technology, transportation, access to health care, COVID-19 and other infectious disease precautions, hygiene, safety, and service may not be as high as those standards in the United States or Canada and may require flexibility and patience on the part of Participant. Understanding all of this, Participant agrees to accept responsibility for their own safety and welfare while traveling for and attending the Retreat. Participant accepts these risks and understands that not every risk is set forth herein. Participant accepts the risk of contracting COVID-19 during the Retreat and during the travel to and from the Retreat.

b. Participant acknowledges that they alone are responsible for their choices, actions, and results during and after the Retreat. Participant accepts full responsibility for the consequences of their use or non-use of any information provided by Instructor during the Retreat. Participant agrees to use their own judgment and due diligence before implementing any idea, suggestion, or recommendation of Instructor in their life, family, or business. Participant agrees that there can be no guarantees as to the outcome or result of using the information they receive from Instructor during the Retreat. Participant agrees and acknowledges that ayurveda and Yoga are not substitutes for medical attention, examination, diagnosis, and treatment by a licensed physician.

15. WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY FOR RETREAT

In consideration of Instructor inviting Participant to the Retreat and accepting their reservation for the Retreat, Participant agrees to release, forever discharge, and hold harmless Instructor and their employees, agents, teachers, independent contractors, and other representatives, and their heirs, successors, and assigns (“Released Parties”), from liability for any and all Claims (as defined immediately below) relating to or caused by Participant’s attendance at and participation in the Retreat and in any additional activities or excursions Participant may engage in during the Retreat not provided by Instructor (“Claims”), unless caused by the gross negligence or intentional wrongful act of Instructor. The term “Claims” shall include any and all liabilities, claims, demands, actions, damages, rights of action, and causes of action, of whatever kind or nature, that may now or hereafter exist or arise, arising out of personal injuries, losses suffered, and damages of any kind (including but not limited to direct, indirect, consequential, incidental, punitive, or any other damages), including those known and unknown, developed or undeveloped, and foreseen or unforeseen, relating to or caused by Participant's participation in the Retreat. Participant agrees that this waiver and release shall be legally binding upon them personally and their family, estate, heirs, successors, and assigns. In addition, Participant acknowledges that, in large part, operational control of the Retreat will be in the hands of the third-party retreat center, and that any cause of action regarding its shortcomings would be against the retreat center and not against Instructor. Participant acknowledges that Instructor is not responsible for the safekeeping of Participant's personal property while at the Retreat, or for ensuring Participant's safety from contracting COVID-19 during the Retreat or during the travel to and from the Retreat.

16. WAIVER AND RELEASE FOR THE PRACTICE OF YOGA

In further consideration of Instructor inviting Participant to the Retreat, Participant provides the following additional waiver and release of liability for the practice of Yoga while at the Retreat (the term "Yoga" is defined above in Paragraph 3):

At the Retreat, Participant may participate in Yoga classes taught by Instructor.

Participant agrees and acknowledges that Yoga involves physical movements and activity and can be physically and mentally challenging, and therefore bears risk of injury, illness, and even disability and/or death.

Participant accepts all risks of participating in Yoga and assumes full responsibility for any and all injury, illness, and/or damages caused by their participation in Yoga. During Yoga, if Participant experiences any pain or significant discomfort, they agree to listen to and honor their body, discontinue the activity, notify Instructor immediately, and seek medical attention from a licensed physician.

Participant understands and agrees that their participation in Yoga, in each class and in each pose, is voluntary, in their sole discretion, and at their own risk. Participant warrants that they understand their physical limitations and that they are sufficiently self-aware to stop or modify a pose or recommendation before they become injured or ill or aggravate a pre-existing condition.

Participant understands that Instructor is not a licensed physician, nor a medical professional of any kind, and therefore will not and cannot give them medical advice. Participant agrees that Instructor has no duty to provide them with medical advice or care (including CPR) during Yoga. Participant also understands that nothing said by Instructor should be construed as medical advice.

Participant understands that during the Retreat, Instructor may touch them and may give them physical assistance from time to time, and that before each class, it is their responsibility to let Instructor know if they do not want to be touched or assisted.

This waiver and release shall apply to all classes, lessons, workshops, and recommendations Participant takes from Instructor, and all instruction Participant receives from Instructor, no matter where performed or given, and no matter what style or branch of Yoga practice is taught.

Participant therefore agrees to release, forever discharge, and hold harmless Instructor and their employees, agents, teachers, independent contractors, and other representatives, and their heirs, successors, and assigns (“Released Parties”), from liability for any and all Claims (as defined immediately below) relating to or caused by Participant’s participation in Yoga (“Claims”), unless caused by the gross negligence or intentional wrongful act of Instructor. The term “Claims” shall include any and all liabilities, claims, demands, actions, damages, rights of action, and causes of action, of whatever kind or nature, that may now or hereafter exist or arise, arising out of personal injuries, losses suffered, and damages of any kind (including but not limited to direct, indirect, consequential, incidental, punitive, or any other damages), including those known and unknown, developed or undeveloped, and foreseen or unforeseen, relating to or caused by Participant’s participation in Yoga. Participant agrees that this waiver and release shall be legally binding upon them personally and their family, estate, heirs, successors, and assigns.

17. ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any disputes between the parties relating to the Retreat or this Agreement shall be submitted first to private mediation in California with a private California mediator upon whom the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree upon a mediator, each party will select a mediator and together those mediators will select the mediator to be used. The parties shall share the costs of mediation equally. The parties shall cooperate with the mediator and participate in good faith in the mediation. The parties agree to submit this Agreement to the mediator for their review. If a party is residing outside California at the time of the dispute, they may appear by video conference at the mediation. If mediation is not successful in the opinion of the mediator and the parties cannot reach a resolution themselves, disputes may be submitted to a court as set forth herein.

18. MODIFICATION OF AGREEMENT

Any future modification, amendment, waiver, or revocation of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective only if it is made in writing and is executed by the parties with the same formality as this Agreement. Any such modification, amendment, waiver, or revocation shall specifically provide what provision of the Agreement it intends to modify, amend, waive, or revoke. No oral modifications, amendments, waivers, or revocations shall be effective. Failure of a party to insist upon strict performance of any provision of this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver of subsequent defaults of the same or similar nature or of the other obligations contained in this Agreement.

19. SEVERABILITY

If any provisions of this Agreement are deemed invalid or unenforceable, such provisions shall be deemed severable from the remainder of this Agreement and will not cause the invalidity or unenforceability of the remainder of this Agreement. Consistent with the provisions of this Paragraph, if any provisions are deemed invalid due to their scope or breadth, such provisions shall be deemed valid to the full extent of the applicable law.

20. INTEGRATION

This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties regarding the Retreat. All agreements, covenants, representations, and warranties, express or implied, oral or written, of the parties are contained herein. No other agreements, covenants, representations, or warranties, express or implied, oral or written, have been made between the parties regarding the Retreat. All prior, contemporaneous, and future conversations, negotiations, possible and alleged agreements and representations, covenants, and warranties regarding the Retreat are waived, merged herein, or superseded hereby. This is an integrated agreement. If any provision of this Agreement conflicts with language about the Retreat on any website (including the Instructor's website) or information provided by an airline, travel agency, hotel or resort, or anyone else, this Agreement shall govern.

21. JURISDICTION, VENUE, AND CONTROLLING LAW

The substantive law of the State of California (and not its law of conflicts) shall govern all questions as to this Agreement's validity and enforceability and the construction of its provisions, as well as all disputes arising out of this Agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree. The parties do not intend to make this Agreement enforceable in California alone. They intend for this Agreement to be valid and enforceable in any jurisdiction that finds it has jurisdiction over the parties regarding the Retreat, within or without California and the United States. Jurisdiction for disputes arising out of this Agreement shall be in the California Circuit Court, with venue in Los Angeles County, unless the parties otherwise agree.
